St. Luke news—

The St. Luke congregation has continued to move forward while their pastor has been under the care of his doctor and also on his vacation.

On Sept. 7 at 11:00 a.m. regular preaching services were held. In charge was Rev. R. L. Paddy. A good crowd was in attendance. The message was given from the spiritual strength of prayer. The Senior Choir gave the music. The offering was good. The Rev. Rudder from N. J. was rostrum guest along with Rev. Alvin Jones.

For Sept. 21 Rev. Alvin Jones was in charge and used the subject, "The Dr. That Could; And The Dr. That Could Not Heal." He brought out the fact that Jesus is the true doctor. The Senior and Junior Choirs gave the music. The services was well taken and one person came forward to unite with the church in baptism. Miss Youlanda Aniesa Bums, 8 yrs. old. The offering was good.

Rev. J. E. McLaughlin is expected to be present and take charge the first Sunday in October with baptzing preceeding the services and the Holy Communion follows.

Mrs. Sadie has returned home after attending the wedding of her son, Sargent James Hunter of N. J. and her other sisters, Mrs. Marion Williams on from D. C. and Mrs. Georgia Anna Hamlett from Philadelphia, Pa. also went to this wedding.

The people of the St. Luke and Greensprings communities has been greatly saddened by the passing of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew R. Hubbard.

The W.S.C.S. of St. Luke will be having their annual Woman's Day program soon. Mrs. Sadie Scott is president.

The Maggie Clayton Senior Club met in the home of Mrs. Louise Canada for Mrs. Ossie Bell Jones Sept. 15 at 11:00 a.m. Mrs. Canada the Club leader carried out a very enjoyable meeting. Some members could not be present. Mrs. Jones served a delightful lunch. Assisted by Mrs. Canada, everyone enjoyed the occasion. They were honored to have a senior from Lynchburg present, Mrs. Ruth Elliott who enjoyed the meeting very much.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Canada, who will be the hostess to the occasion.

The club members made the trip to Lynchburg Hospital to do volunteer service Sept. 19. They look forward to this each Friday.

Appomattox Baptist Temple

By GLORIA DAY

Pastor Ron Gallagher has been bringing some thought-provoking sermons on the book of Revelation. This is one of the most exciting books in the Bible as we are witnessing first hand its being revealed. Don't miss a single service as we study this book together.

Next Sunday, Sept. 28, marks our homecoming. Everyone is invited as we will have dinner-on-the-grounds. Sumner Wemp preaching and the Pantanas singing.

The Ladies Fellowship had their Sept. meeting at the church with Mrs. Louanne Guillerman, wife of Dr. Pierre Guillerman, who is president of the Liberty Baptist Schools as our guest speaker. She presented a very heart-stirring talk on the importance of motherhood. She shared experiences she has had with her two daughters as well as the many foster children she has opened her home to.

A welcome goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Sowell and Shawn and Shana Harvey as they joined our fellowship.

Please remember the following in prayer: Hunter Nash, Roby, Day, Denise Gibbs, Delores Ferguson, Nora Handy, Gary Woods, Albert Davis, Mrs. Pankey and her sister, and Odelle Ranson. Glad to see Irene and Nancy Woods out and felling better.

Verse for the week: I John 2:15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

4-H class meets

By JEFF GARRETT

On Sept. 16, Mrs. Walton came to Mrs. Knight's fourth grade class to talk to the students about the 4-H club. We filled out membership cards and elected officers.

They are as follows: president, Chris Barr; vice president, Sharon Webb; secretary, Julie Youngblood; reporter, Jeff Garrett; recreation leaders, Danny Richardson and Jeff Garrett.

We are sure we will have a lot of fun and learn a lot of interesting things in the 4-H club this year.
